Announcement of Export-Import Bank of Thailand

Subject: Policy of not accepting neither gifts nor any form of benefits from performing duties
(No Gift Policy) Year 2024

Export-Import Bank of Thailand (EXIM Bank) has emphasized managing organization with good governance and anti-corruption principles. All executives and employees are encouraged to perform their duties at the utmost of their ability with accountability, honesty, and transparency following the EXIM's CG DNA, the guidelines of anti-corruption conducted by the Office of the National Anti-Corruption Commission which urged all governmental organizations to have zero tolerance for corruption as a method to build faith and confidence in society and stakeholders and to develop the sustainable organization by announcing a "No Gift Policy".

EXIM Bank is determined to create a culture that does not tolerate corruption and to enhance good governance in the integrative administration of the country. All executives and employees take a zero-tolerance approach toward bribery and corruption and are committed to professionally and fairly acting and with the highest integrity in all business dealings and relationships in all jurisdictions in which it operates. EXIM Bank hereby announces that all executives and employees have the intention of not accepting either gifts or any forms of benefits from performing our duties throughout the process. Moreover, EXIM Bank also stands against all forms of corruption to promote honesty values and create an integrity organization culture in strong and sustainable ways.

It is hereby announced for acknowledgment and adherence.

This announcement is made on February 5, 2024
